

PRACTICE
your English

1 Put these sentences in the right order.

- a. Water vapour becomes water droplets.
- b. Water from oceans, seas and other waterways evaporates.
- c. The Sun's energy heats the Earth's surface. 1
- d. Warm, moist air goes up.
- e. It rains.
- f. The water droplets become big and heavy.

2 Explain this drawing of the water cycle.

3 Complete these sentences with the correct form of the verb 'to be'.

- a. I was walking home from school when it started to rain.
- b. I having a bath when the phone rang.
- c. We watching the water evaporate while we swam in the outdoor heated pool.
- d. They surfing in the ocean when it began to snow.
- e. He listening to the radio while he cleaned his teeth.
- f. She looking up at the rain when, suddenly, there was a flash of lightening.

real LIFE

- a. Ask your parents for a copy of the family water bill. How many cubic metres do you use per month, on average? Write here:
- b. Do you think you can reduce the water consumption in your family? Talk to your partner.

I think/don't think we can reduce the water consumption in my home because